Boots and Shoes.—Large quantities have been forced at auction at less than cost. No quotations can be given. Our stock is very heavy and many holders are storing for future demand. Candles.—Small sales adamantine at 30 and Belmont at 32c. Building Materials.—Lumber at first slightly effected by the fire, has again receded, and assorted cargoes have been offered at $40 per M. In order to prevent exaggerated estimates of our requirements after the fire, we have caused each ship in the harbor to be visited, and find the stock of eastern descriptions affort to be about 7 millions of feet. A moderate estimate of the quantity on shore would give the whole stock as seventeen millions of feet, besides an ample supply of timber and joist from Oregon. Up river markets are well supplied, and some cargoes are awaiting a market at Benecia. would not therefore advise a resumption of shipments at present.
